What is the theme of your greeting card?

Information:

- The greeting cards are 4 ft. x 8 ft. boards cut in half with hinges in the middle that Parks and Recreation will provide.
- They will be displayed throughout the Light Show or in front of the park.
- When displayed each card will have a spotlight pointed on it for visibility.
- The cards should be painted with a holiday theme. The nature of your business or organization can also be incorporated into the design.
- There is no cost to enter a greeting card.
- Cards must be finished and returned to Parks and Recreation by December 7.
- At the conclusion of the Community Holiday Light Show, the greeting cards will become property of Danville Parks and Recreation to be used in future events.

By signing this application, I am acknowledging that I have read and understand the application and rules and regulations outlined by the Community Holiday Light Show and agree to abide by them.
